

Patient Name: Lucas Martin

Age / Sex: 8 Yrs / Male

Date: 2026-10-21

Patient ID: PED-551029

Vitals: 27 kg | Temp: 101.8 F

Physician: Dr. Michael Chen, MD, FAAP

Clinical Diagnosis / Presenting Concern:

Acute Streptococcal Pharyngotonsillitis (Rapid Strep Confirmed)

Rx PEDIATRIC PRESCRIPTION ORDER

1. Amoxicillin Oral Suspension 250 mg / 5 mL

Dosage & Timing: Give 10 mL (500 mg) orally every 8 hours (8:00 AM, 4:00 PM, 12:00 AM) for 10 days.

Total Duration: 10 Days | Bottle: 150 mL | Refills: 0

Safety Alert: Shake vigorously before each dose. Finish full 10-day course even after symptoms clear.

2. Paracetamol Pediatric Suspension 160 mg / 5 mL

Dosage & Timing: Give 12 mL (384 mg) orally every 6 hours as needed for fever > 101 F or throat discomfort.

As Needed (PRN) | Maximum 4 doses per 24 hours | Bottle: 120 mL

Safety Alert: Use supplied oral measuring syringe. Do not co-administer other acetaminophen products.

3. Oral Electrolyte Rehydration Solution (Pedialyte)

Dosage & Timing: Administer 150-250 mL frequently throughout the day to support hydration.

Duration: 5 Days | Dispense: 2 Liters | Refills: 0

Safety Alert: Serve chilled. Do not dilute with additional plain water or fruit juices.

Caregiver Home Care Instructions:

- Keep child well hydrated with warm liquids, broths, and electrolyte popsicles.
- Isolate child from school until after 24 hours of starting antibiotics and completely fever-free.
- Seek immediate medical attention if breathing difficulty, neck stiffness, or inability to swallow occurs.

Dr. Michael Chen

Dr. Michael Chen, MD, FAAP

Board Certified Pediatrician | Lic. # PED-NY-76120